New Bulletin Editor??

If you hadn't noticed (how could you not) the Club Bulletin looks different this month! I mentioned at the June Board of Directors meeting that I hadn't seen a bulletin lately and that one hadn't been posted on the Club's website, www.suncoastoptimist.com, since 5/4/2007. Little did I know that behind closed doors, the 2007-2008 Club President and wife, Beth "volunteered" me to be the new editor...and to be the webmaster for our site. So look for other changes to the website in the not to distant future.

Do you have email?

If you are receiving the club bulleting via the postal service, but have an email address, to help save money on postage, please consider changing to email delivery. Send your request via email to: bulletin@suncoastoptimist.com, please provide your first and last name when requesting.
